These rules apply to all students enrolled at the GOLDSTONE.

- Placement on the GOLDSTONE is subject to review of the applicant by the Advisory Board and is not transferrable to another individual.
- Student at GOLDSTONE undertakes to attend the full course, with an 80% class attendance.
- If a student, having started the course, then withdraws from the course for any reason, it is not guaranteed that the student will be allowed to resume attendance.
- If a student misses any part of the course due to absenteeism, this may affect conferring graduate status upon such a student.
- GOLDSTONE retains the right to change the advertised agenda for GOLDSTONE course or event without notice to the student.
- GOLDSTONE will make every effort to give the student reasonable notice in advance if any class or event is changed.

Commencement of course

- Paying for GOLDSTONE course (s) or event venue, GOLDSTONE will be acting on the students' behalf. Students will be subjected to the terms and conditions growing the college
- It is the student's responsibility to ensure that while attending GOLDSTONE course or/courses and while on any third party premises, he or she does not behave in an improper or disorderly manner or in any way which risks or causes damage to property, or in any way breach the terms and conditions of the premises. Failure to adhere to these rules, the student will be subjected to a disciplinary hearing.
- In the event of such continuous Failure to adhere to this, GOLDSTONE will have the right to require the participant to withdraw from the course and be held liable for damage to property. GOLDSTONE will also be entitled to retain the course fee.
- The student will also be held liable to indemnify GOLDSTONE for any expenses or other liability it incurs or suffers as a result of any such improper behavior.
- A statement signed by the Registrar or his/her delegate shall represent the amount owing to the GOLDSTONE by me/us, and further that in the event of such amount being handed over for collection, I/we shall pay all legal charges incurred on the attorney and client scale;
- Students are all expected to pay all interest on all overdue fees, and disbursements at a rate of 15% per annum compounded monthly and calculated from the first day of each month following the date by which final payment of all fees and disbursements must have been made;

Re-registration Policy

- It is at GOLDSTONE's discretion to agree with the student the hours/days required to complete the course (e.g. attending the balance of events, or re-starting the course in its entirety) in order to be able to achieve graduate status.
- Students wishing to defer their place and reregister under this policy will be required to complete a short re-registration form outlining the circumstances and context of their request.
- The student's re-registration form will be considered by the Advisory Board, using the application criteria. GOLDSTONE cannot guarantee that an application to defer and re-register will be successful.
- In cases where a participant wishes to defer their place before the course they have been originally accepted to has even started, the re-registration fee policy only applies where the request is received fewer than 30 days prior to the first day of the course (hence the full fee for the original course is due in full).
- Students can only defer and re-register a course of the same type. Requests to defer and re-register onto a different course may incur a high fee.
- The 15% re-registration fee can be waived in exceptional circumstances at GOLDSTONE's discretion.

Cancellation and refunds

- Notice of cancellation must be received in writing by post or by fax and is subject to the following terms:
- Where notice of cancellation is received fewer than 30 days prior to the first day of the course, the payer will be liable for 100% of the course fee.
- Where notice of cancellation is received between 30 and 50 days prior to the first day of the course, the payer will be liable for 50% of the course fee.
- Where notice of cancellation is received more than 50 days prior to the first day of the course, GOLDSTONE will make a full refund of the course fee paid.
- No refund of fees will be made for absence due to illness or withdrawal during the course for any reason.
